MEDICINE

"Blood tells." But we rarely recognize the fact except in times of stress and strain. A horse which looks like a "scrub" may beat another horse which seems the ideal of a racer, just by that one quality of good blood. Similarly, when we are in the pink of condition drop down under the racing strain of business. Why? Blood tells. Men reckoned perfectly healthy start out for business, they make a run for the train, and collapse. "Heart failure," they call it. Blood failure would be often the better name. Take care of the blood and the body will take care of itself. It is the blood which builds the body. The blood indeed is the body. A sound body must be based on sound blood.

It is one of the peculiar properties of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it eliminates from the blood all poisons and poisonous matter which is antagonistic to health. It also gives to the blood those elements which are necessary to its strength and vitality. Thus by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" purity of blood and power of body have been attained by thousands of sickly and scrofulous men and women.

No other medicine purifies the blood and builds the body as does the "Discovery." Accept no substitute.

"It gives me much pleasure to testify to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Miss Annie Wells, of Ferguson's Wharf, Isle of Wight Co., Va. "I can say honestly and candidly that it is the greatest medicine ever compounded for purifying the blood, I suffered from rheumatism, and pimples on the skin and swelling in my knees and feet. A year or two ago I was reading one of your Memorandum Books and for a time I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' and am entirely cured."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are graduated to the requirements of woman's delicate system. They regulate the stomach, liver and bowels.

DON'T FEAR LIGHTNING.

A reference to lightning brought out the fact that the Weather Bureau is using its ponderous organization for the collection of lightning statistics. The officials are less concerned with the identification of the thunderbolt than they are with its disastrous effect. According to lightning statistics, 312 inhabitants of the United States, on an average, are struck by lightning during each year. Twenty-five hundred were struck during the last nine years. Farmers suffered most, probably because of their exposed occupation, for the danger of lightning is found to be four times as great in the country as in cities. January, naturally, is the least dangerous month, and July is the most dangerous—123 persons were killed during July, 1893. During the eight years ended with 1897, 7,568 buildings, valued at $17,672,772, were destroyed by lightning; 4,981 of these were barns. Comparatively few churches were struck. In 1898 buildings valued at $1,441,880 were destroyed. New York State headed the list, with 395. There were no disastrous strokes in Idaho, Arizona, California, Oregon, Nevada or Utah. In the same year 1,812 animals, valued at $48,000, were killed by 710 strokes of lightning. This mortality was unequally divided among cattle, horses, mules, pigs and sheep, whole flocks of the latter being killed by single bolts. There is no means of finding out the exact number of trees struck, but it is interesting to know that the list of liability is headed by the oaks. Ash, beeches, pines, larches, and birch trees are most liable to be struck in the order named, on account of their conducting qualities. The records show an increase in the number of damage-dealing lightning strokes, especially in Europe. But the cause of this has not yet been discovered. The only definite fact observed by the bureau is that these violent manifestations seem to occur in connection with the movement of sluggish cyclonic areas across the country during the warmer months. [Alassee's Magazine.]

A FALL RESTORES THE ORGANS OF HEARING AND SPEECH.—Thomas Telmon, a deaf mute, sixty-five years old, fell from the roof of his house in Pittsburg on Monday, alighting on his head. He was taken to the hospital and in the ambulance surprised the surgeons who had been told Telmon was a deaf mute by asking them where he was being taken to. He talked incessantly all day, and although he has been in Pittsburg for fifty years, he used the broad "A" of his birthplace, Boston, and the falling infection, while every Pittsburger uses the flat "a" and the rising inflection.

William D. Slack, Superintendent of the Homopathic Hospital, says it is one of those rare occasions concerning which one reads about occasionally and seldom sees. This he believes to be an authentic case of the complete recovery of both the organs of speech and hearing.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Bosch's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but always inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea. Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cocoa Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by all druggists.

A gentleman recently cured of dyspepsia gave the following appropriate rendering of Burns's famous blessing: "Gentle have meat and cannot eat, and some have none that want it; but we have meat and we can eat." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure "he thanked." This preparation will digest what you eat. It instantly relieves and radically cures indigestion and all stomach disorders.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Chamberlain's Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. U. S. C. C. Co. fail to cure, druggists refund money.
